CA 360 Artist Statement

Tracey Ho's is a Chinese-Canadian artist and Engagement Assistant at SFU galleries who is diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder (ASD) she works across mediums including drawing, painting, sculpturing and digital media which means doing videos. Her practice involves taking patience and trying things many times to hone her craft – both being key to her success in becoming an artist. Her interests are going both inside and outside public areas of Vancouver and Burnaby and getting to know the natural world and sexuality.

She worked on the vinyl piece called Time Flies in 2022 in SFU Burnaby Campus AQ, she also did video practices in 2023. The Sash in 2023 made with the tone t-shirt and yarn, Psychiatric House in 2023 made with large cardboard that reparents a house with a tablecloth, star pillow, and hello kitty plush including me inside of the house. In 2024 she made cardboard wheel and animal balloons out of dragons that represent Chinese New Year that includes the twelve animals in cards of the zodiacs. She made a video called Murder Mystery in 2024 that represents the Hello Kitty murder in 1999 where three suspects killed a woman named Fan-man Yee (23) in Hong Kong, Tsim Sha Tsui no 31 Granville Road Fu Yiu House Lai Yiu Estate Kwai Chung Hong Kong. In 2024 she made a 12x24 canvas painting out of acrylics and watercolors paints about the sea called Ten Years of how she misses her grandparents from both mom's and dad's side that have been dead and thinks about them day and night and brings her emotions to sadness in her heart. This year she made the Dragon Scale Dress out of rainbow loom with bracelets, necklaces and rings.
